Madeline Li

Madeline Li, PNP

I was born in Dallas, TX. I went to college at Dartmouth College and majored in Psychology. After working for several years at investment banks, I went back to nursing school and completed my RN at NYU Rory Meyers then got my PNP at Yale School of Nursing.

I live with my husband, 3 children and 2 huskies and love spending time with them at the beach and aquarium.

Tatyana Bakurets

Tatyana Bakhurets-Grasso, MD

I moved to the US from Ukraine as a teenager and went on to attend St. George's Medical School. After completing my residency at Maimonides Children's Hospital in Brooklyn, I continued there as a Pediatric Attending. In early 2024, my family and I relocated to Connecticut. Working at Norwalk Community Health Center allows me to pursue my passion for medicine. My inspiration for this field comes from my mother. Outside of work, I love spending time with my husband and two daughters, traveling, gardening, and painting. I speak Ukrainian.

Elizabeth Thomas

Elizabeth Thomas, MD, FAAP

I have been working as a pediatrician for more than 20 years. I grew up in Queens, NY and New Jersey but returned to India to complete medical school at PSG IMS & R. I completed my residency training at Harlem Hospital. I worked in upstate New York previously and joined NCHC in 2019. I am board certified and a member of the AAP. I enjoy spending time with my family and playing tennis in the summer. I speak Spanish and Malayalam.

Andrea Vali

Andrea Vali, MD, FAAP

My passion is to practice Medicine.

I have been a Pediatrician for many years, trained at the Montefiore Hospital and Medical Center (part of the Albert Einstein College of Medicine). I was born in Europe, raised in Venezuela. I enjoy living in the USA, it's where I raised my children. My favorite activities are spending time with my children and grandchildren. reading, gardening daily meditation walks and yoga.
